

HARRIGAN HOLIDAYS AC/PASR BRITISH INVASION
JUNE 20 - JULY 1, 2019

Wednesday, June 20 - Overnight flight to London England

Thursday, June 21: Welcome to England

Arrive at Heathrow Airport. Meet your driver and guide and take an orientation tour of London before a visit to the Sherlock Homes Museum. The world famous consulting detective Sherlock Holmes lived at 221b Baker Street between 1881-1904, according to the stories written by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. Mr Holmes shared his rooms with his loyal friend and colleague Dr Watson and the house is protected by the government due to its "special architectural and historical interest." The 1st floor study overlooking Baker Street is faithfully maintained for posterity and just as it was kept by Mrs Hudson in Victorian Times!

Next visit Shakespeare's Globe Theatre. The expert guides will take you on a fascinating tour of the iconic Globe Theatre, bringing the space to life with colourful stories of the 1599 Globe, of the reconstruction process in the 1990s, and of how the 'wooden O' works today as an imaginative and experimental theatrical space. Based under the Globe Theatre, our engaging and informative Exhibition explores the life of Shakespeare, the London where he lived, and the theatre for which he wrote.

Check into Holiday Inn Brentford Lock where dinner will be served this evening. This will be your home while in London. (D)

Friday, June 22: London

This morning after breakfast enjoy a Charles Dickens Walking Tour. This walk will introduce you to numerous aspects of Charles Dickens life in London, and Richard Jones will not only regale you with interesting facts and fascinating insights into Dickens life and times, but he will also entertain you with flawless quotes from Dickens works, all of them presented with an inimitable and dramatic flourish. Beginning with the troubled years of his childhood, these Dickens London tours will follow him through the early years of his writing career as he rose to a world-famous author. On your tour you will seek out places that have changed little, if at all, since the days when Dickens knew them and featured them in his sketches, short stories and novels. You will get the opportunity to See London through Dickens' eyes as you visit places that inspired him most.

Visit Selfridge Department Store and enjoy Afternoon Tea at Dolly's or similar. The café is named after the Dolly Sisters, a pair of glamorous identical twins who entranced 1920s audiences – and particularly Harry Gordon Selfridge – with enchanting performances.

Visit the Tower of London

The Tower of London is a castle located on the northern bank of the River Thames to the south east of the City of London and next to Tower Bridge. The Tower of London is an internationally famous monument and one of England's most iconic structures. It is a 900-year-old castle and fortress in central London that is notable for housing the crown jewels and for holding many famous and infamous prisoners. Throughout its history, the tower has served many purposes: it housed the royal mint (until the early 19th century), a menagerie (which left in 1835), a records office, and barracks for troops. Until the 17th century, it was also used as a royal residence.
